Aaron,

Just FYI – typically the program clients take the lead in drafting the briefing sheets. Please leave blanks where they need to fill in information. If there are legal questions or assistance needed by ORC, they should be asking for your help to answer those. Just wanted to make sure you were aware.

I'll get started on getting you answers. I'm working on the briefing document and hoping to get a draft over to Mr. Imhoff today. Please let me know if you'd like me to incorporate some of this timeline information or consequences at the state level into the briefing.

Thanks,

Aaron H. Vargas
